

Tips and Tricks about WHINN

WHINN is a festival of health and care innovation. You can combine your own programme in accordance to your interest and availability here

When you enter one event you will automatically be invited to put all the events in your basket that you wish.

- We have tried to outline 6 different ways to combine a programme.
- Please note that we all join the same social and networking events.
- Please do also note that some events are slightly overlapping.
- Please note that you can decide your-self how many days you want to attend WHINN
- Please note that most events have a limited number of seats – REGISTER YOUR PARTICIPATION EARLY
- And finally note that some events have special requirements/forms to fill in.
